

UJTFS Executive Director Job Posting

The Urban Jobs Task Force of Syracuse (UJTFS) seeks its first full-time Executive Director who will lead the organization in its mission to realize a Syracuse where all prosper through good paying jobs and meaningful careers. UJTFS is a collaboration of individuals and organizations advocating for and with disadvantaged Syracusans for equitable employment and economic opportunity.

The Executive Director directs and coordinates UJTFS advocacy and public/community outreach activities; engages collaborating agencies and UJTFS membership; achieves goals and objectives consistent with agency mission and contracts; and develops organizational activities, budget and grant management, funding applications, and reporting. Interested applicants should visit our website for application instructions - <https://www.ujtfs.org>.

Applications will be accepted through April 30, 2023.
